Extreme pretentious and exclusive designs are here in great variety, while in the simpler and more popular styles the range is both broad and select, and the prices are moderate.

LEGISLATURE THIS YEAR HAD A DUE REGARD TO ECONOMY AND MADE A RECORD FOR ITSELF.

Figures of the session of the Legislature which has just closed show that it has cost the territory approximately some $10,000 less than has any previous session while the amount of work performed has been greatly in excess of that of the former bodies.

The following reports of the committees on accounts were presented yesterday in the upper and lower houses:

I concur excepting the last item. I believe the question was of such importance that the amount paid was justified.

AH NAM AND HIS INDICTMENTS

WITNESS IN McDUFFIE CASE DID NOT KNOW HE WAS UNDER INDICTMENT.

McDuffie's name among the Chinese of Aiea, according to Ching Mon Gar, a witness in the McDuffie trial this morning in Judge De Bolt's court, was "the big white devil." That is what interpreter Crawford said the Chinese designation for McDuffie meant. Mon Gar was called to testify regarding the alleged bribery of McDuffie by him, for permission to run a che fa game. High Sheriff Henry and former Deputy Chillingworth are among the witnesses who have been subpoenaed by the prosecution.

Ah Nam, who was called yesterday afternoon, was under cross-examination all this morning by F. E. Thompson. Ah Nam said he came here eleven years ago as a contract laborer and told of the many different jobs he had held until he entered the employ of Mack, as he called McDuffie, and Charley Chillingworth. He worked with them on cases and was paid according to the cases. His mode of wages appeared to be very small, for he said that in a little over a year he had earned $30 from them. During the same time Officer Ah On had paid him $30.

Ah Nam said he went with McDuffie to Mon Gar's place at the time of the alleged bribing, in April last year. They entered Mon Gar's store and the latter asked them to have tea. He also asked Ah On to have a smoke of opium and the latter entered a rear room to smoke. Ah Nam said that he entered later and McDuffie asked him if there was any che fa game on. Ah Nam replied that there was, and McDuffie, according to the witness, asked if there was anything being paid "for our expenses."

"Mon Gar said he was paying $15," said Ah Nam in answer to various questions. Five each was for McDuffie, Chillingworth and Ah On. He said he had given the money to Ah On. McDuffie said he had never received any, and demanded $10, saying he would raid the game if it was not paid. Mon Gar said times were hard and offered to give $5, saying that if the game got bigger he would do right. An offer of compromise at $7.50 was made by McDuffie. Won Wa Gar finally gave $5. I paid it to McDuffie on the train later."

Thompson asked Ah Nam if at the time of these doings he was not under indictment for robbery. Ah Nam said he was not. In answer to another question he denied that he had been indicted subsequently. Thompson then produced two indictments bearing the title of the Territory against Ah Nam, for robbery, and asked the witness if he was the man referred to. As to the first Ah Nam said he didn't know. When asked about the other one he delivered a little speech, saying it was the duty of the grand jury and the government to lock him up if he was indicted. "I don't know whether I am indicted or not unless I am arrested," said Ah Nam. Further questioning brought out the fact that Ah Nam had appeared before Judge Gear at the opening of the circuit court and had been sent to prison under the indictment for robbery.

Deputy Attorney General Peters asked on redirect if the witness knew whether or not at any time he had been under indictment, up to today.

"I didn't know whether I was indicted or not until Judge Gear opened the September term of court," said the witness. "Then I was sent for and told I was needed for a witness. The court told me when I was in court, through an interpreter, that it would lock me up for robbery and burglary. Then I was placed in jail."

Mon Gar was called after Ah Nam to tell his story of the alleged bribing. The jury hearing the case consists of C. G. Bartlett, W. L. Austin, H. W. Green, J. F. Langston, D. M. Ross, H. B. Saylor, E. Henriques, M. W. Parkhurst, C. Lambert, William Green, F. J. Robello and J. Steiner.

EDITOR STAR:—If the Republican county convention nominates Arthur Morgan Brown for the office of Sheriff of this County they will present a name to the electorate that will be received with marked enthusiasm and he will be elected. He was forced to resign the office of High Sheriff under such circumstances as justifies his hosts of friends in making such a fight for his election. As will be remembered large sums of money collected upon executions passed through his hands, and every cent was paid over. Life and property was secure during his occupancy of the office of head of the police and High Sheriff firm in the discharge of duty he filled the high office to the entire satisfaction of all reasonable men. No higher recommendation can be presented, and his return as the head of the police will be a source of satisfaction to him and to his friends, as well as a guarantee of the future efficiency of the service. General public opinion is for the man for the office of sheriff of this newly-made county. His staunch support of Republicanism and his work has earned for him the nomination, and no intriguing should prevent him from getting it.

Yours very truly,
 A VOTER.

THE HOUSES TODAY.

President Isenberg of the Senate was down town this morning for only a brief spell but did not go near the Senate chamber where he has held sway for the last sixty days. He went out home early there to enjoy a rest after the strenuous life of the recent closing session.

The chambers of both the upper and lower houses were as empty as last year bird's nests today save for a few members who dropped in to gather up their papers.

LIQUOR BILL BECAME LAW

INCORRECT HUMOR WAS ABROAD TO THE EFFECT THAT THE GOVERNOR HAD NOT SIGNED.

A rumor was abroad last night and this morning to the effect that the Liquor Bill had not received the assent of Governor Carter, and hence that the old law would have to obtain for the best two years under any circumstances. As will be seen from a perusal of the list of measures passed which is published in the Star today the Liquor Bill became law by receiving the Governor's signature yesterday afternoon. The bill was numbered 222 in the House and becomes Act 67 of the Session Laws of 1905.

THE SUPREME COURT REVERSES ITSELF

GRANTS A REHEARING AND SETS ASIDE VERDICT AGAINST L. AILLO.

The Supreme Court this morning decided the case of M. B. Silveira vs. Ah Lo, motion for a rehearing, reversing its own former decision which overruled the exceptions, and ordering the case sent back to the circuit court for a new trial.

The suit was for rent and a verdict for plaintiff was given in the circuit court. On appeal the verdict was sustained, but Castle & Withington asked for a rehearing, claiming error in the decision. In an opinion by Chief Justice Frear the court finds itself in error in the former decision and grants the rehearing, ordering the circuit court to retry the case. Justice Hartwell writes a concurring opinion.
